When installed in a private dwelling these insulating materials qualify for a Federal Tax Credit under section 25C of the Internal Revenue Code. This credit is subject to the regulations of the Energy Policy Act of 2005 and the Internal Revenue Code.

This certificate is not required to be filed with the tax return on which the credit is claimed. However, income tax regulations require that the certificate be retained as part of the taxpayer's records. It is recommended that taxpayers consult a tax professional with regards to eligibility for this credit.

"Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined this certification statement, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, the facts are true, correct and complete."
